

Hi Everybody!

I'm so excited that we will be back in school together very soon☺. This is a special week because it is careers week and Thursday is World Book Day and Investigations Day. So we have a slightly different time table for you. I hope you enjoy the activities and find something to wear for World Book Day; you can dress up as any book character you want. We would love to see photos of you having fun.

Can't wait to see you soon,

Kate, Danny and Celia.

Monday	Careers Week This week is careers week. Today I would like you to think about your future. In your packs you will have some careers worksheets to complete: 'When I grow up I want to be', 'future carer' and 'what do you want for your future?' We will do some career related activity on Teams this morning. If you have any questions about any of the sheets then please ask us.

How much money is in my jar?	Careers- Today I would like you to go on a job scavenger hunt, which is in your work pack. Have a walk around your local area and see if you can spot some of the workers on your sheet.	P.E Complete a Joe Wicks workout.
Wednesday	Reading Read your school books independently and then spend an hour on Lexia. Thursday	WORLD BOOK DAY/ INVESTIGATION DAY Today is World Book Day and Investigation Day. We are looking at the story 'The world made a rainbow' by Michelle Robinson. The story is on YouTube, search for it and then listen to the story. Then you will have an activity asking you to write what you are most looking forward to when lockdown is lifted. Your science investigation is 'fruity sweets colour mixing' which is in your packs, along with some skittles. Please take some photos and send them to us. After the investigation you could maybe write down what has happened and why?
Friday	World Book Day Today I would like you to think about our World Book Day story again. The story was all about lockdown and what we have missed. There is a lovely memory maker activity in your packs to complete today, all about lockdown memories.	Mindfulness Have a look at the meditation on the website or complete a mindfulness colouring in sheet.	Independence Help out around the house.
